

Moon-Hyun Kim

Attorney

Attorney

Seoul

D +82 2 2262 6288

moonhyun.kim@dentons.com

Overview

Moon-Hyun Kim represents clients in litigation and provides legal advice in various fields including real estate development projects, civil and administrative matters. Prior to joining the Firm, Ms. Kim served as a law clerk at the Seoul High Court where she learned judicial practices in general civil, commercial, general administrative, fair trade and labor litigation cases.

Experience

- Confidential client: Rendering legal advice and represented the client in civil and administrative litigations as to multiple urban development projects in Pyeongtaek and Gimpo.
- Confidential client: Representing the client in a case related to the Capital Markets Act including a damages claim alleging violation of investor protection obligations.
- Confidential client: Representing the client in withdrawal of the penalty disposition imposed on bid-rigging under the Fair Trade Act.

Activities and Affiliations

Memberships

- Korean Bar Association
- Seoul Bar Association

Prior and Present Employment

- Attorney, Dentons Lee, 2020-present
- Attorney, Yikyung Law, 2017-2019

- Judicial Researcher, Seoul High Court, 2015-2017

Areas of focus

Practices

- Administrative Litigation
- Civil Litigation Arbitration
- Fair Trade
- Labor and Employment
- Urban Development Act

Education

- Chungbuk National University School of Law, 2015, JD
- Ewha Womans University, 2008, BA, Chinese Literature & Language

Admissions and qualifications

- Admitted to the bar, Korea, 2015

Languages

- Chinese
- English
- Korean